Ill. Wonder how many "Cheese & Crackers"—Christians we have in Midtown???

(Man bought steamship ticket. Ignorant of travel Bought 6 days supply of cheese & crackers. On 6th day tired of it. 15 C & C meals! Asked Asked a steward, "How much a meal cost in the dining room in there?" Sumptuous meals in sight! "Why sir, your ticket entitles you to 3 meals a day. Go right in and order what you want!")

Our supplies come with our ticket.IC.2:9.

"ALL"
I Cor. D. All: Matt. 6:33. All: deals with necessities, not luxuries and frills. TODAY: Too many consider luxuries as necessities. Not so!

E. NEEDS: What are our needs? Ans. *I Tim.6:6-8.

1. Dangerous to COVET more. I Tim. 6:9-12.

Ill. Wise, Christian Economics prof. to class: "When is a man rich enough?" Answers:

$10 M. No! $20 M. No! $50 M. No! When???

Ans:"When he HAS a little more than he HAS!!! / or NEVER!"

Ill. Great lesson taught on Steamship CENTRAL AMERICA. She sank! Women & children filled the life-boats. Gold miners aboard. Given life-jackets. Dropped money-belts. Then carpet bags of gold dust. One miner poured out $100,000 worth of large nuggets---with no takers! Covetousness was certain death!

Ill. Wonder how many half and half Christians there are tonight? Like rich man: Had two cataracts on eyes. Going blind. Dr. offered to remove them for $100 each. Miser said, "I will have one eye restored. I can count my money with it and save the other $100." Story told by Dr. A. J. Gordon. (KntI, 200)

INV: HOW ARE ALL MY NEEDS SUPPLIED?

Answer: Vs. 19. "According to HIS riches in glory in Christ Jesus."

LESSON: Righteousness with contentment and peace of mind is the ABUNDANT LIFE. Jesus knew it. Paul knew it. We know it Ill. One of America's richest men found it out. Ill and dying from dissipation and over-work he said, "What good does my wealth do me? I can't eat it or anything else. No appetite. I can't spend it. Can't leave my bed.

Haven't even SEEN it or HELD it. It is in the hands of my executives who are using it FOR THEMSELVES through every pretense possible.

Had I heeded my mother's religion I would would be well and healthy and happy today. Instead I die, a beggar for a few more moments of life....and for God's mercy!"

What is righteousness? Mark 16:15-16.

What is righteousness? James 5:16.
